

Mark your calendar today!

Missouri Department of Transportation
P O Box 270
Jefferson City, Missouri 65102

You're invited to help set a course
for the future ...

The Missouri Department of Transportation cordially invites you to participate in a:

Come help us explore the possibilities in these important research focus areas. Please share this invitation with other staff and students.

Special Call for Research Ideas

At the conclusion of the afternoon session, participants will be given details on a special one-month research proposal process.

For more information, contact:

Ernie Perry
Freight Development
Administrator
MoDOT
(573) 526-4317
ernest.perry@modot.mo.gov

Transportation Research Forum

Forum topics:

- Freight Development
- Intermodal Development
- Funding, Finance and Economic Development

March 18, 2008

St. Louis University

Busch Student Center, Room 173

Visit www.slu.edu/events/bsc.html for directions.

RSVP by March 7 to:

Debra.Brandwein@modot.mo.gov

Agenda for Tuesday, March 18

9:30 a.m. - Registration

10 a.m. -2:30 p.m.

Morning:

Panel discussions and presentations from MoDOT experts in the focus areas of Freight Development, and Intermodal Development

Lunch will be provided:

Special presentation on the New I-64

Afternoon:

Panel discussions and presentation from MoDOT experts in the focus areas of Funding, Finance and Economic Development